

For the logo, we focused on working professionals and students with smart watches that want to track their stress levels and reduce it. In terms of look & feel we wanted to go for an approachable & minimalistic design to make it inviting and improve readability on mobile phones.